

Delivery period parcels from Belgium to abroad

Introduction

You send parcels from Belgium abroad and you want to know after approximately how many days a parcel will arrive. The table in this document gives you an indication of the delivery period for parcels.

The delivery period is only an estimation because PostNL has no control of the logistical processes in other countries. So the number of days may be different.

Factors influencing the delivery period:

A number of factors can influence the delivery period. The delivery period can vary for example because of:

- Local public holidays
- Processing by customs in the destination country
- Strikes or other events in the destination country

Would you like to stay informed of changes to the delivery period? Go to our International Service web page Alerts via postnl.nl/isa.
